Jazzmine

Jazz & Soul

Jazzmine is a dynamic group of seven passionate musicians, each bringing their own musical background to create a unique blend of sounds. Originally formed as a jazz band five years ago, the group's evolving tastes quickly expanded their repertoire to include soul, blues, funk and 80s pop.

M 20:45–21:15

Marianna & Magda

Opera

Their love for classical opera has formed the basis for a strong friendship between these women. Trained by opera and conservatory experts, Marianna and Magda explore the repertoire of classical opera, particularly from the Bel Canto period, always striving for emotionally engaging performances with professional quality.

Small Hall 19:50–20:05

MAVO

Pop-rock

Sometime back in 2016, a group of Mechanical Engineering students at TU Eindhoven came together to make music. Years later, they're still going strong, making sure that wherever they perform, the party is on fire. With bangers from rock bands like Queen and Bon Jovi, or pop classics from Avicii and Guus Meeuwis, everybody will sing along!

Main Hall 22:00–22:40

Miguel & Robin

Acoustic

Miguel and Robin will bring you their acoustic versions of emblematic songs about life and love that will take you on a trip down memory lane. A mix of fun and emotional classics in multiple languages by legendary artists will give you an 'inolvidable' night. They will play a variety of music genres ranging from Édith Piaf to Roy Orbison, Elvis Presley and many more.

M 18:55–19:15

Mr. Guy Fox

Roots and folk

Mr. Guy Fox is a roots and folk singer-songwriter who does things his own way – authentic and honest through musical expression. Expect influences from Johnny Cash, Bob Dylan and Eddie Vedder accompanied by guitar playing in alternative tunings, creating an earthly warm and harmonic sound. You will also enjoy the natural musical synergy in a heartfelt duet with his good friend Marvin Anthony.

M 19:45–20:15

Orange Butteko

Rock

Be sure to check out Orange Butteko, a band driven by a deep passion for the classic rock songs that have shaped our lives. With influences ranging from Led Zeppelin to Black Sabbath, they bring these timeless hits to life with raw energy and heartfelt dedication. From the pounding rhythms inspired by drumming legends like John Bonham and Neil Peart to the searing guitar riffs that echo the golden era of rock, their sound captures the essence of the 70s and beyond. Having honed their craft across different stages in Brazil and Europe, their love for rock knows no boundaries.

Second Foyer 19:15–19:45

Pagood

Samba

A group of friends founded Pagood because of a shared love for one of Brazil's most iconic music genres – the rhythmic Samba. From beat to beat, this Samba band knows how to ignite a crowd. They're performing at some of the hottest venues in Eindhoven, with roadshows in Amsterdam and Belgium. They create a party everybody wants to join – great vibes all around!

M 21:45–22:15

Pythagoras String Quartet

Classical music

Beethoven has always been a composer in a category of his own – a true genius belonging to neither the classical nor the romantic composers. Particularly his late string quartets are considered among the highest-level and emotionally rich music ever composed, perfect for ASML On Stage. Pythagoras String Quartet is performing two movements of Beethoven's String Quartet No. 9, Op 59/3.

Small Hall 20:05–20:25

Raga Rhythms

World music

Raga Rhythms is an immersive blend of rhythm and melody, combining the hypnotic sounds of the hand pan, the deep vibrations of the didgeridoo and dynamic electronic beats, enhanced with live looping. Soulful Carnatic vocals add a rich, melodic layer, intertwining the beauty of Indian classical music with contemporary rhythmic textures.

Rastika Band

Turkish pop and international music

This band with deep Turkish roots serves up nostalgia with a fresh twist – get ready to dance! Fatih, Sinan, Veysel, Hilye and Deniz have been performing at various live music events. As strong believers in the universal power of music, they play Turkish pop music favorites from the 90s and 80s combined with international music. Experience the vibrant spirit of Turkish culture!

Small Hall 22:00–22:30

Sceptical C

DJ

Born and raised on Curacao, Antillean artist Corne Van Der Heijden was nurtured in an environment rich in various musical styles that continue to flow in his veins and define his sound today. The art of playing vinyl captivated him early on and he embraced his passion for electronic music when he moved to Eindhoven. Utilizing 'digital vinyl' or performing live, DJ Sceptical C crosses genres from house to techno, interwoven with classic influences and underground allure. He believes that the true value of music lies in the collective experience it creates.

Second Foyer 22:30–23:00

Sitar & Tabla

Indian classical music

Sagar Joshi and Aneesh Deogan will perform an Indian classical music act and an adaptation of a popular western song on their traditional instruments. The sitar is a stringed plucking instrument with a unique resonant tonal quality and mystical feel. By 'bending' the string to glide up to half an octave, it resembles a singing voice. The tabla is a percussion instrument that looks like a bongo, yet it has a wider range of sounds, enabling high-energy polyrhythmic compositions.

Small Hall 20:55–21:05

Stijlloos

Cover band

Cover band Stijlloos started 30 years ago in 1995 as “No pain no gain” with only ASML colleagues, rehearsing in the canteen of Building 1. The band embraces limitless fun and diverse musical styles on stage. The connection with ASML remains strong. They've played for many colleagues, and it always turns into a great party!

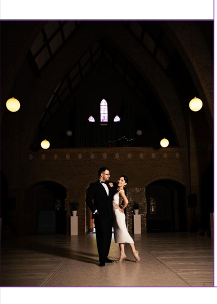
Second Foyer 21:30–22:00

Tangoceano

Tango

The journey of this passionate tango couple began in Istanbul almost 15 years ago. Over the years, they've learned from incredible maestros and fellow couples from Argentina, Turkey and across Europe, shaping their unique style and deepening their love for this beautiful dance. Now, as performers and teachers, they're dedicated to sharing their passion for tango with a growing community of dancers. They create a space where everyone can experience the joy of tango and connect through the rhythm and 'embrace' of this timeless art form.

Small Hall 18:45–18:55



Yuan Yuan Hsin

Piano

Meet Yuan Yan Hsin, a professionally trained pianist who holds several Master degrees in musicology, piano and business. Next to her internship at ASML in reverse supply chain operations, she's currently working towards her Master in global supply chain management. She brings the passionate heartbeat of tango alive with every note, pulsing with fiery movement and untamed rhythm. At ASML On Stage, a free, affectionate melody will flow from the piano, taking you on a journey to Buenos Aires!
